

The 90-Day Prosperity Experiment

Day 40: You Are A Master by Kate Nowak

Hello from my heart to yours,

Do you have any idea what a magnificent being you are? Are you aware that the entire universe is at your service? God created it that way and gave you full dominion. You have been fully empowered to constantly create your life in exact accordance with the way you think and feel. Whether you realize it or not, you are in charge. You always have been, but somewhere along the way, you took a right turn at forgetfulness and stopped identifying with who you really are.

And that's ok. We all forget from time to time. But just to make sure you remember it now, I'll repeat it again.

You are magnificent. You are a Master.

It's time for you to wake up and remember. You were never made to cower, to be beaten down by life, to be afraid. You are a Divine Being, made in the image of your Creator, and fear is not an attribute of divinity. It has no place in your life.

So, no matter how threatening your difficulties might be at the moment, your business is not to cower in fear, it never has been. Your job is to wake up and remember who you are.

You are a Master of Life. Always. You may have forgotten. You may have even stopped feeling like a Master. But that doesn't do away with the truth.

You are a Master, whether you realize it or not. So you might as well stop fighting it.

Start being it, instead.

Don't worry. You already have everything you need to reclaim your power. Right this minute. You don't have to wait until you can find your Master Tool Kit. You have it with you. It's called Consciousness. Use it.

The best way to direct your Consciousness toward your Mastery instead of away from it is to start blessing everyone and everything in your life. Whenever you feel discouraged, start blessing your circumstances. Whenever someone makes you angry, start blessing instead of striking back. Blessing everyone and everything. And keep doing so, over and over again. Why? Because blessing your world -- calling it Good -- is like hitting the Mastery Reset Button. It reprograms Consciousness. It steadfastly reminds you who you are.

You are magnificent. You are a Master. You may have forgotten it momentarily, but the universe didn't and it is faithfully responding to your every command.

So here's the deal. You can keep on allowing yourself to be overwhelmed by life or you can rise above it. It's up to you. In a state of forgetfulness, we tend to think of all the wonderful things we would do if we could only get rid of the things that block and limit us. In our forgetfulness, we dream about how much easier our lives would be if we didn't have to struggle so, if we didn't have so many disappointments, so many heartaches, so many trials and tribulations. But that's in the state of forgetfulness. And you're not there any more. You're remembering. You are remembering who you are.

You are remembering that right this minute the entire universe is bowing down to you, just as it always has been, ready to grant your every request. Not once in all these years while you've wandered around in the land of forgetfulness, has the universe forgotten who you are. It always remembered, even when you did not. It remembered...

You are magnificent. You are a Master.

The time has come for you to remember, too.

You are magnificent. You are a Master.

The time has come for you to return to being one. The time has come for you to be the Master you were born to be.
