

The 90-Day Prosperity Experiment

Day 42: Coincidences: Ya Gotta Love 'Em! by Kate Nowak

Hello from my heart to yours,

Have you ever thought about some fellow you haven't heard from in years and then suddenly, "out of the blue" you run into him, or he calls you? Usually the first words out of your mouth are something to the effect of "What a coincidence! I was just thinking about you!" We tend to marvel momentarily when events such as these occur and then we let them go, chalking them up to nothing more than the unexplainable quirkiness of the world. Silly us.

A co – incidence is an incident that happens along with another incident. Some times the two seemingly different incidents happen at the same time and place. Sometimes they happen at different times and places, but they always relate to each other in obvious ways. We tend to think of them as mere chance. Truth is, they are much, much more. They are the calling cards the universe uses to get our attention. They are messages from God.

Basically, a coincidence is a synchronized event orchestrated by the universe to fulfill your intentions. Until brought into consciousness, everything in the world exists only as undefined energy: a sort of pure potentiality floating around in wave-particles: An energy soup of possibility.

When you intend something, your intention initiates an intricate but beautifully synchronized dance of universal energy that serves to perfectly align hundreds, perhaps even thousands, of specific events, bringing them together in the most harmonious way to make physical manifestation of your intention possible.

As long as your intention is strong and focused, the dance continues until the manifestation is completed. Give up the intent, however, and the universe gives up the dance. No manifestation. Keep desiring, keep intending, keep focusing, and when the dance is done, the desire will present itself in physical form.

As a way of illustrating, imagine for a moment that the universe is a warehouse filled to overflowing with mis-matched puzzle pieces. Think of each little wave-particle of energy in the universe as being a single puzzle piece that must be matched with other pieces in order to create a completed puzzle, or completed manifestation.

Each of these little wave-particle puzzle pieces has its own specific frequency that identifies it as belonging to a certain type of puzzle. All the other pieces that fit in that specific puzzle also vibrate on the same frequency.

Your desire is vibrating at a frequency, as well, and when you send it forth into the universe, it begins to pull to it all the puzzle pieces that are matching in frequency, and when they are brought together they combine to construct the whole puzzle. In other words, your desire draws to it all of the matching wave-particles necessary to coalesce and collapse into physical form the thing or experience that you most want.

Coincidence, or synchronicity, is the way the universe does it and it is taking place all the time. Usually we remain blithely unaware of the endless synchronicities in our lives. We have to be aware, or in tune to realize how in sync we are with everything else. We have to move into a higher state of awareness before we begin to realize that coincidence is part of the Divine Order of the universe. Coincidences have to take place because in a world where time and space exist only in mind, everything is happening at once and must naturally be “in sync” with everything else. It cannot help but be. Coincidence is as vital and necessary to the divine workings of the universe as breathing is to our ability to live in human form.

When you begin to realize that every coincidence that occurs in your life is an opportunity for you to fulfill your desires, then you can never again look at a coincidence in the same way. Each coincidence that you tune into becomes a personal note from God telling you that your desire has been duly noted and heaven and earth are now being rearranged to bring it to you as quickly, easily and effortlessly as possible. It's God's way of saying “Hang in there. Keep doing what you're doing. You're on the right track. It's coming. Don't give up now. Whatever you do, don't give up NOW!”

So start paying more attention to the coincidences taking place in your life. When you notice one, write it down, express gratitude for it and above all else, Celebrate It! It is a clear and sacred sign that your desire is on its way to you. Now is not the time to shrug something off as mere quirkiness. Oh, no-siree!

Now is the time to jump for joy and shout out in glee. Now is the time to stand on the rooftop with your arms open wide to accept your good. ‘Cause, baby, it's on its way. It is most certainly on its way!

Coincidences. Don't you just love 'em?

Today's Action Step:

1. Re-read your Prosperity Business Plan and your ~~Top~~ Eleven Things Gratitude List.
2. Place today's allotment of money in your container and read the affirmation on the container three times. Expect to receive in return.
3. Bless those around you, including your fellow participants in this experiment. See those you bless prospering and surrounded by good. Then bless yourself and see the same. You may also want to continue blessing those on the blessing request list.
4. Return to the blessings requests and read the responses being posted by those who have been blessed. (You'll find a link at the bottom of this email, or simply go to bettertobless.com and click on "Request a Blessing") Your blessings are making a difference. Reading the responses will give you an opportunity to see for yourself.

Today's Quote:

"Coincidence is the word we use when we can't see the levers and pulleys."

— Emma Bull

Today's Affirmation:

"Everywhere I look I see signs that prosperity is mine."
