

The 90-Day Prosperity Experiment

Day 59: The Big Reveal by Kate Nowak

Hello from my heart to yours,

Early in the Prosperity Experiment I asked you to begin placing money in a container each day for the purpose of giving it away when we came to the 90th day. At the time I did not divulge who the recipient was to be.

Today the time has come to reveal that information to you.

But first I want to take you back in time a bit. Do you remember the story told in one of the early messages about the man who was out walking his dog and was approached by a beggar? If you do, you may also remember that later in the story, when the first man discovered that what he had given to the second had been used imprudently, he was angered and resolved that he would never give again. (If you do not remember the story, you can revisit here)

In the story the man soon discovered, as we all must, that when we cut ourselves off from giving to others, we are the ones who suffer. That is because giving is as necessary to our being able to live a full and balanced life as exhaling breath is to our ability to breathe in. There is an ebb and flow inherent in all of life. When we withhold ourselves from any part of this give-and-take process, we step out of the natural flow and literally cut ourselves off from our own good, just as holding our breath not only keeps us from breathing out, but it keeps us from breathing in, as well.

In the story related earlier, after much suffering, the man who had refrained from giving to others eventually realized his error and so used the power of his imagination to reconstruct a scenario in his mind. In so doing, he mentally created a beneficial outcome for all concerned.

And that is what I am inviting you to do today. I would like for you to put your imagination to work. In your mind, place yourself in the future, a little over 30 days from now. After having faithfully placed the allotted sum of money in your container for 90 days, you now have that money available to give away to someone who would greatly benefit from your gift.

So now, simply allow your mind to bring forth an image of who that recipient will be. Don't try to force an image of who you think the "right" recipient should be, but simply relax and let an image come to mind. At this point you don't need to know a name, a place, or even a time. You simply need to imagine that you are giving your gift to the person to whom it is meant to go. And imagine, too, that everyone involved in the process is benefiting.

Once you have this image in mind and it feels good to you, then express your gratitude that the perfect recipient of your gift is coming forward now. And for the remainder of the Prosperity Experiment, each day as you place your money in the container, once again revisit the image you have created in your mind of the perfect recipient coming forward to accept your gift. Then express your thanks, and release the image up to God.

Don't try to take control. Don't start looking around to see if you can "spot" the recipient coming your way. Don't attach a list of qualifications that recipient must first have. You don't want to clutter the image up with "must haves." Just relax and know that what you have imagined is now your reality and in Divine Order, Divine Time and with Divine Purpose it is being revealed to you.

Remember early on that I told you that the money would be going to the best possible recipient YOU could imagine. Now the time for the Big Reveal has come, and only YOU can imagine who it will be.

Have fun with this process. As suggested in yesterday's message, don't think about giving the money away, think from a position of having already done so. Think about how it makes you feel to have blessed someone else. Think of the good being done. Think of the highest and best for the recipient, as well, and in your mind, see the recipient empowered by your gift so that he or she may pay it forward to another.

As you do so, you will begin to feel a gentle shift taking place. That is you returning to center. Once again, you are fully stepping back into the ebb and flow of life.

Enjoy.

Today's Action Step:

1. Re-read your Prosperity Business Plan and your ~~Top~~ Eleven Things Gratitude List.
2. Take a moment to stand firmly with one arm raised to the heavens, the fist clenched as firmly as if you were holding on to the hand of God. Now either mentally or vocally affirm: "As God as my witness, I am powerful today, I am brave today, I am strong today, I am fearless today, I prosper today. And I am living each moment of this day embracing my true nature and moving closer to becoming the person I am destined to be. For today and every day from this point forward this is my truth."

Note: If possible write this affirmation on a card that will fit in your wallet or purse and carry it with you so you can refer whenever you feel doubts or fears arising. And each time you repeat this affirmation, say the words with as much feeling and emotion as you possibly can, spending at least one full minute imagining every aspect of your life as you want it to be.

3. Place today's allotment of money in your container and read the affirmation on the container three times. Expect to receive in return.

4. Bless those around you, including your fellow participants in this experiment. See those you bless prospering and surrounded by good. Then bless yourself and see the same. You may also want to continue blessing those on the blessing request list. Reading the responses will give you an opportunity to see for yourself.

Today's Quote:

" Giving frees us from the familiar territory of our own needs by opening our mind to the unexplained worlds occupied by the needs of others."

Today's Affirmation:

"I am part of the natural ebb and flow of life."
